

Communication with the police

We recommend discussing your action with the Protest Liaison team.

They will be able to advise options in terms of whether to communicate with the police beforehand or once an action has started.

Remember, we never ask for permission. In some situations it is advisable to inform authorities of our planned actions as this reduces the likelihood of 'over policing'.
