Crime scenes - another great theatrical way to get your message across. Best used for targets who get a high footfall of people passing your protest.

The following props are useful:

- Poles or cones to attach it to and cordon off the area
- Costumes- white decorators suits for a forensics officer, or doctor outfits if using the die-in idea

 - Cause of death/death certificate printed onto paper
 - Safety pins to attach the paper to the sheets
 - A PA system for a spokesperson to explain the action
