We love Tree Huggers

This action was designed in Response to Keir Starmers negative outburst “I hate tree huggers!”

- Turn up at location/march/action with a real or metaphorical representation of a tree.
- Make a cardboard cut out of a tree to hug, carry a real tree branch/knitted tree/ papier mache etc
- Dress up as a tree and hug yourself, accompanied by Placards with trees
- Sing/read poetry/play music about trees
- Rallying speech from a tree hugger or green man/woman
- Hang out and hug your tree
- March with your tree.

□□□□□□To add spice gather together a forest of tree huggers and plant yourselves outside a topical location and make some noise! You could then even chain yourselves together with crocheted leaves/ivy/ daisies
