SOS (Self Organising Systems)

What is this training about?

SOS Training explains how XR uses its Self Organising System to organise. This system is very different to what most people have experienced in hierarchical organisations or traditional NGOs, so SOS training demystifies our system, and shows that it really isn't that complicated!

What trainings are available?

SOS Drop-ins

If you don't want to attend a full training session, but have a few queries about SOS, pop along to the monthly SOS drop in sessions.

SOS for Local Groups

A new training that will explain how SOS can be used in your local group, without going into detail about the more complex way SOS is used in XRUK circles.

SOS Basics Training

An essential training for co-ordinators of XRUK circles (sometimes called central circles), this session explains how SOS is used in these circles and explains the basics of mandates, integrated decision making, and XRUK's structure.

SOS Intermediate Training

Also essential for co-ordinators of UK circles, this session is for anyone who has already attended the basics training. It goes into more detail about how SOS works and its complexities.

When?

SOS Trainings are offered relatively regularly.

Introductory Video

What is Rebellion Academy?

It is a learning environment of trainings that you can work through, in your own time, including audio versions you can listen to, for example while out walking. New trainings are constantly being created, and if there is anything you feel is missing please contact us.

If is not a calendar of trainings, or a place for networking. There are live trainings available in XR, but the Academy is for you to learn in your own time and at your own pace, and where Rebels can catch up on bits of training they have missed.

What's the difference between Rebellion Academy and the Toolkit?

Academy: a learning environment, with videos and interactive trainings,

Toolkit: a collection of web pages, like a Wiki, with links to resources.

Some information may be shared in both, but if you want to ensure you have completed a training (e.g. NVDA), then the Academy is the place to go. If you are looking for information or links, start with the Toolkit.

First time using Rebellion Academy?

If it's your first time on the Academy, you can either search directly for a training you're looking for, or you can try our quiz to find out which trainings might be most relevant to you.

Regenerative Cultures Sessions

If you have any general questions about our training, please email us on xr.regenerativeculture@gmail.com

What is this Regenerative Cultures Thing?

In this recorded workshop we define and explore regenerative cultures.

REGENERATIVE CULTURES: PURPOSE

Rebels are supported to bring regenerative practices into all aspects of our work: helping us to remember why we do the work, how we want to develop it and how we can sustain it, and ourselves, into the future.

[Note: When we say cultures we are simply meaning the ways we approach ourselves, others and whatever we are doing. When we say regenerative cultures we mean those that support nourishing relationships that are balanced. We use the word ecosystem in both its widest meaning and as a metaphor that means giving care and consideration both to the parts of the system (person, group, movement) and to the system as a whole.]

Connecting Through Life Stories

What is this training about?

We can do amazing things when we come together as a united force, and hold together through the many difficulties that we face.

This means building good, strong relationships with each other and learning how to reach out and build relationships with the wider population.

We have found that asking people to share their life stories with each other is a very powerful way to bring people together in many situations. It is also very simple – anyone can do it.

This combination of power and simplicity suggests it has the potential to bring deep benefits on a wide scale. Everyone is welcome to this workshop.

We're also looking for people who would like to learn how to run 'Connecting Through Life Stories' groups.

We use a very simple format, and so learning to do it is just taking part in a sharing stories group at the start of this workshop, and then staying on for a little extra instruction and discussion.

Format

Sessions are held over Zoom and last 1 hour 15 mins, plus an optional 30 minutes at the end to learn how to run this workshop yourself.

When?

Connecting Through Life Stories runs monthly, usually on the first Tuesday of the month from 7pm-8.15pm (or 8.45pm). Please see this document for information on dates and how to register.

OMBRA (Oppression, Movement Building & Our Relationship as Activists)

What is this training about?

OMBRA looks at how movements can be divided when oppression goes unaddressed, and offers practical tools to heal these divisions which affect our relationships as activists.

This workshop will address the importance of understanding the structural nature of oppressions (such as racism, sexism, classism, ableism, the oppression of young people, ...), as well as doing personal healing work – both of which are necessary if we are to work together effectively in a united movement.

Format

Sessions are held over Zoom and last 3 hours.

When?

OMBRA sessions run once or twice a month but are not always on the same day. Please see this document for information on dates and how to register.
