

Prepare for Action: Facilitators' Guide

Facilitators are the 'third trainer' alongside the speakers in the video.

They are essential to the experience of the attendees, from organising the group, leading discussions and practices, and giving post session information.

Using the comprehensive video and guidance for facilitators means that anyone can organise a PfA workshop. This might be to help with:

- local or region groups
 - onboarding new rebels
 - preparing for action
 - planning an action with allied organisations
