

More Examples of Polis Statements

Examples of open statements:

- How might we make the Third Demand, the demand for systemic change, more appealing and widely understood?
- How might we create local groups that can attract and keep people involved?
- How might we create purposeful actions in our local communities?
- How might XR be more focused on its demand for systemic change - a Citizens' Assembly on Climate and Ecological Justice?
- How might connections be understood and improved between the Hive, Nations and Regions, Local, Campaign and Community groups?

Examples of closed statements:

- Do you feel there needs to be a balance between consultation and research when designing a strategy?
- Is it important to get the consent of the movement for a strategy?
- Do you think that Operations has the final say on whether an Actions Strategy is appropriate or not?
- Do you think that the best way to get feedback on the Movement Strategy or Actions Plan is best done by presentation with Q&A to every group that requests it?
- Do you think that once a strategy is written, there needs to be an assembly to make sense of it in practical terms?
